Corriere Canadese Weekend

The New Mainstream Lifestyle Weekend Paper

With a population of close to half a million people hailing from all across the globe, Bloor-Bay is one of the most densely populated and culturally diverse regions of Toronto. Over 61 different first languages are spoken here. As a cultural hub, Bloor-Bay boasts the presence of one of North America's largest Chinatowns, as well as Koreatown and trendy Little Italy. When it comes to the arts, the area simply has no peer. From the galleries of fashionable West Queen West, to the theatres of King Street and the presences of the AGO, ROM, OCAD, Four Seasons Centre, Roy Thomson Hall and festivals like Nuit Blanche, the area is a treasure trove of artistic gems. For the latest fashions and styles, there are the boutiques of Yorkville and Bloor, as well as the Eaton Centre and the hipster splendours of Queen West.
